Wake Schools Survey

The Wake County Board of Education sent letters Monday to parents of students in all grades, asking them to respond to an online survey to help the board make decisions about year-round schools and student assignment.

2:00 01/13/2010 11PM

Survey Problems

Wake County Public School System officials said they are aware that there is a major flaw with their online survey, which asks parents whether they prefer traditional or year-round schools. Parents must enter their child's ID number to take the survey, but there is nothing stopping them from re-entering the number and taking the survey again multiple times. Survey-takers can also enter any number combination and easily get into the system.

2:00 01/22/2010 5PM

Wake Mayors And School Board

Mayors of several Wake County municipalities met Friday with members of the county Board of Education to talk about how they can work together more effectively. The mayors have no authority over the school board but often face pressure from residents over education-related issues. Ten of 12 mayors and six of nine school board members attended the meeting; the mayors of Wake Forest and Garner and board members Chris Malone, Deborah Prickett and Keith Sutton did not.

2:00 01/25/2010 5PM

Wake Schools Public Hearings

WRAL-TV5 Issues/Programs Quarterly Report
January 1, 2010 – March 31, 2010

Since Jan. 12, parents of students attending public schools in Wake County have been giving their input on year-round schools. The Wake County Board of Education sent letters to parents of students in all grades, asking them to respond to an online survey to help the board make decisions about year-round schools and student assignment.

2:00 02/03/2010 5PM

Cumberland County Schools Start Time

A Cumberland County schools administrator proposed changing the start time for classes in the fall, a move he said could save the district more than $300,000. Associate Superintendent Tim Kinlaw presented his suggestion Tuesday to the school board's Auxiliary Services Committee.

2:00 02/08/2010 5PM

Meredith President Retires

Meredith College President Maureen A. Hartford announced Monday that she will retire next year. The first woman president of Meredith, Hartford has led the Southeast's largest women's college since July 1999. She plans to leave the school in June 2011.

2:00 02/09/2010 5PM

Minority Grant

The NEA Foundation on Tuesday awarded Durham Public Schools $1.25 million to boost the classroom achievement of minority students. The money will target black males in the early grades to help them graduate on time. Research shows the group is struggling the most within the district, said Kristy Moore, president of the Durham Association of Educators.

2:00 02/12/2010 5:30PM

Bowles To Retire

University of North Carolina President Erskine Bowles announced Friday morning that he will retire as head of the 17-campus system by the end of this year, or as soon as a successor can be named.

2:00 02/16/2010 6PM

School Site Abandoned

Wake County school board members voted 5-4 Tuesday to abandon a proposed site for what's expected to be the district's largest high school and to pursue land deals on two other potential sites. The move could cost the school system an additional $15.4 million and delay the opening of the new school, known as H-6, by as much as two years, to 2014, board members heard Tuesday.

2:00 02/23/2010 5PM

Naming Rights For New School

The "where" of what will be Wake County's largest high school is up in the air, but its name is settled. The Wake County Board of Education's Facilities and Operations Committee voted 3-0 Tuesday morning to name the school Rolesville High School.

2:00 02/24/2010 5PM

Diversity Policy

Academic achievement, proximity and parental involvement should be among the important considerations in how students are assigned to schools in Wake County, board members discussed Wednesday. Still, the Wake County school board's three-member policy committee in a 2-1 vote rejected potential changes to the school system's diversity policy, with one member saying more work is needed.

2:00 02/25/2010 NOON

Arts Education

WRAL-TV5 Issues/Programs Quarterly Report
January 1, 2010 – March 31, 2010

Arts education is a priority at Eastover-Central Elementary School of the Arts in Cumberland County. Students as young as pre-kindergartners learn to play the violin. Once-a-week violin class is mandatory from kindergarten through second grade. Cumberland County schools provide the instruments.

2:00 02/26/2010 5:30PM

Community Schools Plan

The Wake County Board of Education will take a vote Tuesday on a resolution to base student assignment on community schools, chairman Ron Margiotta said Friday. One of the agenda items set to be discussed during the board's regularly-scheduled public meeting would establish a board directive for the establishment of community-based assignments

2:00 03/02/2010 11PM

Wake County School Budget

Wake County school board members heard details Tuesday about the superintendent's proposed $1.2 billion operating budget, which calls for a $20 million reduction in central services and 83 layoffs. In addition, the school system will also eliminate 23.5 vacant positions under the spending plan, altogether saving about $5.8 million, David Neter, chief business officer for Wake County Public School System, said.

2:00 03/02/2010 5:30PM

Year Round vs. Traditional

Three year-round schools in Wake County will return to a traditional-calendar schedule next school year, the Board of Education decided Tuesday. Leesville Road Elementary and Leesville Road Middle in Raleigh and Mills Park Elementary in Cary will undergo conversions.

2:00 03/03/2010 5PM

Halifax County Schools

Nearly a year after the state stepped in to help improve student performance in Halifax County Schools, the superintendent says the troubled school system is seeing some positive results.

2:00 03/04/2010 11PM

NAACP vs. Wake Schools

The state NAACP says it will hold a news conference Friday following a remark made earlier this week in which the Wake County school board chairman called a crowd at the school board meeting "animals."

2:00 03/11/2010 5PM

Parents And Wake School Plans

Parents of about 4,500 Wake County public school students will have the opportunity to apply to year-round or magnet schools, beginning Friday. Earlier this month, the school board converted year-round calendars at four schools to traditional calendars based on results from a district-wide survey gauging parents' attitudes toward their children's school calendar assignments.

2:00 03/19/2010 5:30PM

Clergy And School Board

A group of more than 20 ministers, priests and rabbis are calling on the Wake County Board of Education to postpone a vote next week having to do with a controversial community-based student assignment plan.

2:00 03/23/2010 5PM

Wake School Board

The Wake County Board of Education voted a second time Tuesday evening to work toward a community-based system of student assignment. The board has said working out the details of the plan could take up to 15 months.

The Wake County Board of Education voted Tuesday to end the school system's long-standing student assignment policy.

HEALTH

2:00 01/01/2010 5:30PM
Diabetes
Many people go through health screening that includes a fasting blood test. It's used to find people at risk for diabetes and to monitor those with the disease. As WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask explains, a more accurate, non-fasting test is the new standard.

2:00 01/04/2010 5:30PM
Adult Vaccines
Some diseases that still claim lives around the world have virtually vanished in the United States. That's mainly due to successful vaccination efforts for children. But in tonight's Health Team report, Doctor Allen Mask explains that too many adults are not up-to-date with their recommended vaccinations.

2:00 01/05/2010 5:30PM
Antidepressant
Doctors use a variety of therapies to treat depression including antidepressant medications. A new study reviewed research on these drugs. WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask explains that it showed they only offered a substantial benefit for one group of patients.

2:00 01/07/2010 5:30PM
Winter Skin
An uncomfortable side-effect to all this cold weather is what it does to your skin. It can make it red, dry and painful. Dr. Allen Mask is here with suggestions on how to keep your skin healthy during the winter.

2:00 01/08/2010 5PM
Milk Thistle
Chemotherapy can help people beat cancer. Some of the side effects can be harsh which may cause patients to discontinue or delay more treatments. WRAL's Doctor Allen Mask reports on a new study which finds an herb could help treat a liver problem that often comes with chemotherapy.

2:00 01/11/2010 5:30PM
Immunity Boost
In this winter season, it's tough to avoid all that coughing and sneezing. There are some foods and drinks that can help boost your immunity. As Doctor Allen Mask reports, they help give you a fighting chance against that not so common cold.

2:00 01/12/2010 5PM
Biomed Funding
Many new life-saving drugs and treatments are the result of biomedical research. You might think that funding would reflect those advances. The Health Team's Doctor Allen Mask reports that biomedical research funding is actually slowing down.

2:00 01/13/2010 5:30PM
Miracle Drug

WRAL-TV5 Issues/Programs Quarterly Report
January 1, 2010 – March 31, 2010

A new film opening in theaters next week revolves around a real life family and children with a rare disease. Big name stars such as Harrison Ford and Brendan Frazier help tell the tale. But the Health Team's Dr. Allen Mask explains, the real star is a miracle drug born in the Triangle.

2:00 01/18/2010 5:30PM

NANO Vaccine

The H1N1 outbreak last fall led to long lines of people searching for vaccines! The supply was short while the demand was high. New technology developed right here in Research Triangle Park can keep this from happening again.

2:00 01/20/2010 5:30PM

Scoliosis

Scoliosis, a curvature of the spine, doesn't just occur in children. It's not often diagnosed, but it is common in older adults with arthritis. Patients often require surgery to relieve the pain. But as WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask explains, a new procedure offers a quicker recovery.

2:00 01/21/2010 5:30PM

HIV Mouse Study

We've come a long way in treating HIV. But still, the disease has increased in the U.S. by 15% between 2004 and 2007. Decades of research has not produced a reliable vaccine yet. That's why UNC researchers focused on drugs to prevent infection before exposure.

2:00 01/22/2010 5:30PM

Heart Attack Treatment

The way heart attack patients are treated could change dramatically in the future. This comes after the results of a new drug study. But, WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask reports, there is still a long way to go before the drug is proven to work in the U.S.

2:00 01/25/2010 5:30PM

Eat, Drink Give Birth

When a woman is about to have a baby, she prepares for what could be a difficult delivery. Doctors are also prepared in case an emergency C-section is needed. That's why patients can't eat or drink anything but ice chips. WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask explains that hunger and thirst in the delivery room may soon be a thing of the past.

2:00 01/26/2010 5:30PM

A-Fib Catheter

Atrial fibrillation or A-Fib is a common heart rhythm problem. It increases the risk of stroke, heart failure and even death. WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask explains, new research shows a catheter treatment is more effective than drug therapy in treating some patients.

2:00 01/27/2010 5:30PM

Baseball Park Heart Survivor

Some people have a heart condition they may never know about until it suddenly threatens their life. That's what killed 26-year-old pro football player Gaines Adams more than a week ago. Dr. Allen Mask is here now with the remarkable story of another man who suffered the same condition and lived.

2:00 01/28/2010 5:30PM

Cadaver Service

It's an unforgettable moment for physicians - that day in anatomy class when they came to study a human donor. It's an invaluable source for learning that can't be gained any other way. WRAL's Dr. Mask studied medicine at UNC and didn't do it in the past. But now it is a tradition to meet the families and honor their loved ones who gave such a special gift.

WRAL-TV5 Issues/Programs Quarterly Report

2:00 01/29/2010 5:30PM

H1N1 Update

Fifty to sixty million Americans have had H1N1 and about ten thousand have died from complications of the virus. There have been 2 waves of the virus so far - one last spring, another in the late summer, early fall. Now, UNC infectious disease expert Dr. David Weber says there's signs of a 3rd wave may be starting.

2:00 02/01/2010 5:30PM

Birth Control Essure

Many couples choose not to have children while other couples have all that they want. Most permanent birth control options require surgery and a few days of recovery. WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask spoke with an Olympic gold medal skier who found a procedure she thought was too good to be true.

2:00 02/02/2010 5:30PM

JAMA SIDS

A mysterious risk of sudden death for babies haunts many parents. Sudden infant death syndrome - or SIDS - is the leading cause of unexpected death in babies one month to one year of age. WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask explains, a new study found a chemical deficiency in the brain is associated with the syndrome.

2:00 02/03/2010 5:30PM

Haiti Volunteers

The situation in and around Port Au Prince in Haiti requires immediate action to save lives and bring comfort. But volunteers must first consider the health risks to themselves and plan accordingly.

2:00 02/04/2010 5:30PM

Concussions

It's true that the way the pros play, college and high school players will follow suit. Hard hits - especially to the head - may leave life long impairments. Technology and some rule changes are making the game safer, but concussions will always be a risk for players.

2:00 02/05/2010 5:30PM

Kids Backpacks

It seems as though students are getting more homework than ever. As WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask explains, a new study finds lugging all those books around may be bad for your back.

2:00 02/08/2010 5:30PM

Herbal Remedies

Millions of Americans use herbal remedies. But a new study finds they can pose a serious risk to some heart patients! WRAL's Dr. Allen Mask explains why some supplements could reduce the effectiveness of certain medications.

Follow-up story included comments by Sen. Kay R. Hagan, (D) North Carolina: "Tonight, the President said we need to get serious about our national debt. I am among a group of Senators who have been pushing for a bipartisan debt commission, which I supported in the Senate this week along with 52 of my colleagues. I am pleased the President is agreeing with our position. Tonight he announced such a commission by executive order. He also proposed a three-year, discretionary spending freeze for budget items not related to national security, which I support."

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Kidnap on Highway 1" - In November 2007, Chris and Debra Hall, and their children, Tyler and Divinia, were driving back to California from Mexico, when they were pulled over a few miles from the U.S. border by what they thought were police. A man in a military uniform approached and suddenly put a gun to Chris' head. Moments later the family was ambushed by a second car of gunmen. As the kidnappers drove them onto a dirt road in the mountains outside Tijuana, they began asking about a race car. While in Mexico, Chris and Tyler worked as part of a pit crew at the Baja 1000. When Chris explained that there was no race car, the men ransacked the family's trailer and then took them farther into the mountains. The gunmen put the family in a ditch and threw sleeping bags over them. As the Hall family lay hugging in the ditch, the men drove away. Ultimately the Halls crawled through the brush in the night to a house where a woman took them in and called police for help. Despite her assurances that they could trust these officers, the family could not help but fear they were in danger all over again. The authorities rushed them to the border. For the moment they were safe, but with the gunmen in possession of their drivers' licenses and their address, they will carry the memory of that traumatic night with them. Mexican authorities never investigated the kidnapping, and the Halls still don't know who their assailants were. Drug gangs in Mexico are known to wear police uniforms as a way to trap their victims. The story is narrated by Divinia, Chris, and Debra Hall. Other contributors: Lt. Dave Myers of the San Diego Sheriff's Department, John Schardt, Divinia's schoolmate; and "Maria", the Mexican woman who helped them.

48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Innocence Lost" - a followup to "Who Killed These Girls" (OAD: 03/25/92) and "Deadly Encounters" (OAD: 09/14/98). In December 1991, four teenage girls were found murdered in an Austin, Texas yogurt shop. The girls had been tied up, stripped down, at least one was raped, shot in the head and their naked bodies were stacked in a corner then set on fire. In the weeks after the murders, authorities received countless tips, many false confessions and even interrogated teenagers Maurice Pierce, Michael Scott, Robert Springsteen and Forrest Welborn. With no solid evidence, they were released. There were no developments in the investigation until 1999, when new detectives assigned to the case made the announcement that they had made four arrests: the same four suspects, whom police had interrogated to eight years earlier. The charges against Welborn and Pierce were dropped. Scott and Springsteen each stood trial for murder. Both were convicted, with Springsteen sentenced to death and Scott sentenced to life in prison. On appeal, the convictions were overturned when DNA evidence did not match any of the suspects. It was from an unknown male. The Travis County District Attorney, Rosemary Lehmborg, says there is no statute of limitations for murder, and they will continue the investigation until the person(s) responsible for these murders are brought to justice. For now Scott and Springsteen are

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Buried Secrets of Las Vegas” - a report on the death of gaming tycoon Ted Binion, who was found dead in his Las Vegas home more than a decade ago. The son of legendary gambling impresario Benny Binion, Ted was a brilliant casino operator himself. Paranoid about his wealth, he stashed millions of dollars worth of silver in a hidden vault in Pahrump, Nevada. Ted was also addicted to smoking heroin. Prior to his death, he became involved with Sandy Murphy, and it was she who told police in September 1998 that she had found him dead of an apparent drug overdose. However Binion’s sister, Becky Binion Behnen, insisted to police that this was no drug overdose and demanded an investigation. Police discovered that Sandy was having an affair with Rick Tabish, and theorized that they were trying to steal Ted’s buried treasure. Both were charged with his murder and both were found guilty of murder in the first degree. While imprisoned, Sandy contacted Alan Dershowitz, who agreed to take on her appeal. The Nevada Supreme Court agreed with Dershowitz’s arguments and overturned both convictions. After the second trial, both Murphy and Tabish were found not guilty of murder, but were found guilty of stealing Binion’s buried silver from the Pahrump vault. Many believe that much of Binion’s money is still missing. 48 HOURS retained ground sonar experts to search the Binion estate, which had remained empty since his death; nothing was found. Tabish remains in prison because of a prior record; Murphy returned to California where she married an art dealer. Tabish’s latest bid for parole is under consideration. Murphy is suing the state of Nevada, alleging false imprisonment and malicious prosecution. Interviewed: Sandy Murphy; Wayne Newton, Las Vegas entertainer; Glenn Puit, author; Becky Binion Behnen, Ted’s sister; Christine Lefkowitz, Las Vegas realtor; Wayne Peterson, the Las Vegas Police Lieutenant who led the investigation; Ed Howard, Nye County Police Lieutenant, who saw Tabish digging up the vault in Pahrump; Attorney Alan Dershowitz; Rainey Williams, evidence custodian; and Jared Lampe, ground penetrating radar technician.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Secret" - a report on the March 2007 disappearance of 911 operator Theresa Parker of LaFayette, Georgia. Theresa had recently separated from police officer husband Sam Parker, whom she had married in 1993. One night, after visiting her sister Christina Hall, Theresa vanished. Police found her car at Theresa and Sam's house, but there was no sign of her and no obvious signs of foul play. Police investigation revealed that Sam was an abusive husband with a drinking problem. When investigators found vacuum marks, Theresa's blood and Sam Parker's DNA in the back of Theresa's SUV, he was arrested and charged with his wife's murder. Prosecutors believed that Sam had murdered Theresa, drove off and disposed of her body. Parker insisted he had not killed his wife and suspected that she had run off to Mexico. The jurors said the task of deciding Sam Parker's fate was particularly daunting because they had an overwhelming amount of circumstantial evidence, but not much else. After three days of deliberation, the jurors seemed hopelessly deadlocked. The judge urged them to give it one more try. After a closer look at cell phone records, the jury found him guilty of first-degree murder. He was immediately sentenced to life in prison. Theresa's family believes that Parker may be the only one who holds the key to finding Theresa's body, but he still insists that he did not kill her and does not know where she is. Interviewed: Christina Hall; Sam Parker; Rhonda Knox, Theresa's friend and co-worker; Walker County Sheriff Steve Wilson; Special Agent James Harris of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation; Kenneth Parker, Sam's brother; FBI Special Agent Marc Veazey; Defense Attorneys David Dunn and Doug Woodward; Prosecutor Leigh Patterson; Keila Beaird, Sam Parker's former wife; unidentified members of the jury.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Thou Shalt Not Kill" - a report on the November 1994 murder of Farah Fratta, whose body was discovered in the garage of her Humble, Texas home. She had been shot twice in the head. At the time of her death, Farah was in the midst of a divorce. To the outside world, her husband Bob Fratta was an upstanding citizen, who worked in public safety as both a police officer and a fireman. But divorce documents were about to make his dark side public, revealing his strange sexual requests that not only embarrassed Farah, but also sickened her. Bob Fratta seemed the likeliest suspect in his wife's murder, but he had a seemingly airtight alibi: he was at church with their three children as his wife was being murdered. Investigators worked to build their case against Fratta, and four months later they got an unexpected break. Tracing his phone records from the night of his wife's murder led them to a mysterious woman, Mary Gipp, who claimed that she could have prevented Farah's murder. She knew that her boyfriend had been hired by Fratta to kill his wife. Informed by police that she would be charged with murder, she made a deal and was given immunity for her testimony. Her boyfriend, Joe Prystash, had been hired by Fratta to arrange the murder and Prystash had hired Howard Guidry to be the trigger man. Guidry and Prystash were arrested and confessed. Fratta was arrested and charged with murdering his wife. After the trial, it took less than one hour to convict him. He was sentenced to death, along with Prystash and Guidry. Thirteen years after the murder, a federal judge threw out Fratta's conviction and ordered a new trial because the judge said there was testimony linking Fratta to the murder that should never have been admitted. At the new trial, after two days of jury deliberation, Fratta was found guilty of capital murder. The jury decided to send Fratta back to death row. He now plans to appeal his conviction. Interviewed: Lex and Betty Baquer, Farah's parents; Kitty Waters Sneed, Farah's co-worker and closest friend; Detective Larry Davis; Bradley, Daniel and Amber Baquer, Farah and Bob Fratta's children; Mike Edens and Jimmy Podhorsky, who worked out at the gym with Fratta; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; Mary Gipp, Prystash's girlfriend; social worker Judy Cox; Mike Charlton, Fratta's; Denise Bradley and Mia Magness, prosecutors for the second trial; Randy McDonald and Vivian King, Fratta's attorneys for the second trial.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Time To Kill" - A report on the September 12, 2001 disappearance of Michele Harris, a resident of Tioga County, New York. Michele, a mother of four, was involved in a bitter divorce with her husband, Cal Harris. He claimed she did not return home on the evening of September 11, 2001; her empty van was discovered at the end of their driveway the next morning. Cal denied any involvement and when no evidence was found during a search of the Harris home, he suggested to investigators that they take a closer look at Michele's personal life. Investigators uncovered that Michele was involved with two different men, both of whom had seen Michele the night she disappeared. Two days after the initial search, a forensic specialist was sent to the Harris home and found tiny specks of blood on a kitchen doorway, something that had been overlooked during the initial investigation. With the discovery of a possible crime scene, as well as Cal's refusal to take a polygraph, focus was placed on Cal, who began a relationship with a former girlfriend just eighteen days after Michele's disappearance. On September 30, 2005, Cal Harris was arrested and charged with murder. The trial began on May 21, 2007 and ultimately, he was found guilty of second degree murder. Just days before Cal Harris was to be sentenced, a new witness came forward and claimed to have driven past the Harris driveway around dawn on September

With this new information, the judge threw out Cal's conviction for the murder of his wife and ordered a new trial. It will be at least a year before Cal Harris is tried again. Update for this second rebroadcast: In July of 2009, Cal Harris once again went on trial. After a three-week trial, the jury found him guilty again. Harris was sentenced to twenty-five years to life in prison. He plans to appeal for a third trial. The search for Michele's body continues.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Guessing Game" - a report on the January 11th, 1999 murder of Belinda Temple and her unborn child. A resident of Katy, Texas, Belinda was married to David Temple, once the celebrated defensive linebacker at his high school and now a successful and respected football coach, and mother to their one son, Evan. After an afternoon of errands with Evan, David returned home to what appeared to be forced entry and found Belinda in the couple's bedroom closet, shot in the head. Homicide detectives believed that the crime scene had been staged -- nothing was stolen from the home and the way the pieces of glass fell from the broken back door of the Temple's home seemed unusual, as if the glass was broken with the door already opened. Detectives were also troubled when they learned that David was having an affair with a fellow teacher, Heather Scott, who eventually became his second wife. Three months after the crime, a grand jury was convened, but nobody was indicted. With no DNA evidence, no eyewitnesses, no murder weapon, and no incriminating fingerprints linking David Temple to the crime, years passed until 2004, when Scott Peterson was convicted of killing his pregnant wife in a trial that captured the nation's attention. The similarities in both murders gave authorities a renewed confidence in their circumstantial case against David. Prosecutor Kelly Siegler finally got some forensic evidence, when after years of laboratory snafus and delays, a critical FBI report came back and indicated traces of gunshot residue on David's jacket. On November 29th, 2004, David was arrested for the murder of his wife, Belinda. After a contentious trial with David's attorney, Dick DeGuerin, David was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. He will be eligible for parole in 2037, when he will be 69 years old. David Temple has appealed his conviction. He is waiting for the decision.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lies and Whispers" (10:00-11:00p) - A follow-up to "Sex, Lies And The Doctor's Wife" (OAD: 11/12/05) and "Truth On Trial" (OAD: 11/15/08), detailing the third trial of Daniel Wade Moore, who was first convicted of murdering Karen Tipton, a mother and wife of psychiatrist Dr. David Tipton, in her Decatur, Alabama home in 1999. As detailed in "Truth On Trial", eight months after his conviction, in 2005, the verdict was reversed by the same judge who had sentenced him to death. A second trial was held, ending in a hung jury. This report details his third trial (2009) in which his lawyers made use of new evidence to turn suspicion back to Dr. Tipton, by using an FBI report that said Karen Tipton was having multiple affairs and may have known her killer. After a month of testimony, Moore is found not guilty of the crime. Moore has moved away from Alabama after receiving death threats and plans to sue the city of Decatur and police for violating his right to a fair trial. Interviewed: Daniel Wade Moore; Sherman Powell, Moore's attorney; presiding Judge Glenn Thompson; Dr. David Tipton; Ken Collier, former chief of investigations for the Decatur Police who is now the police chief; Sparky Moore, Moore's uncle; Pam Smith, a Tipton neighbor; Co-prosecutor Corey Maze; Virginia Byrd, Moore's mother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Cry for Innocence" - A report on Damien Echols, who has been on death row in Arkansas for the past 16 years, convicted of murdering three eight-year-old boys: Stevie Branch, Chris Byers and Michael Moore. At the time, amidst a country-wide media-fueled hysteria about Satanic cults, Damien, because of his affinity for long hair and dressing in black became a prime suspect, along with friends Jason Baldwin and Jesse Misskelley. The trio, known as the West Memphis Three, were convicted of triple-murder: Misskelley and Baldwin sentenced to life in prison, while Damien Echols received the death penalty. The police had no evidence linking Echols to the crime until Misskelley, whose lawyer says he has the mental capabilities of a five-year-old and barely knew Echols, confessed to helping him and Jason Baldwin commit the murders -- although many of the facts he recounted about the crime were incorrect. Misskelley was tried first, convicted and sentenced. Echols and Baldwin went on trial together: Misskelley refused to testify against them, and by law his confession could not be used against them. Still, they were convicted. As word of this case spread, so did the outrage over what many believed was a grave injustice. Members of the entertainment community, including actor Johnny Depp and musicians Natalie Maines and Eddie Vedder, came to their support. An HBO documentary, "Paradise Lost", and a book by Mara Leveritt entitled "Devil's Knot", detailed flaws in the case and now, forensic scientists have challenged the causes of the wounds inflicted on the victims, and sworn affidavits have revealed possible jury misconduct and new DNA evidence points away from the three convicted men and towards someone unexpected -- Terry Hobbs, Steve Branch's step-father at the time of the murders. As Echols prepares to take his case to federal court, he has some unexpected support from the parents of two of the victims: Mark Byers and Pam Branch, who now agree that justice has not been served. Interviewed: Damien Echols; Lorri Davis, a landscape architect from New York, who married Echols after researching the case; actor Johnny Depp; victims' parents Pam Branch and Mark Byers; Jerry Driver, West Memphis juvenile officer; Dan Stidham, Misskelley's lawyer; Dennis Riordan, attorney now heading Echols' legal team; Rachael Geiser, private investigator; Terry Hobbs, Stevie Branch's former step-father; Debbie Moyer and her daughter Jamie Ballard, former neighbors of the Branch family.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lady In The Pool" - on July 22, 2008, Michael Roseboro, a funeral director in Denver, Pennsylvania, called 911 to report that he had just found the body of his wife, Jan, at the bottom of their swimming pool. Less than an hour later, she was pronounced dead at the hospital. An autopsy revealed that she had been strangled, beaten and then drowned: her death was ruled a homicide. As police conducted their investigation, an unexpected tip revealed that Michael was having an affair with Angela Funk, a married mother of two who lived near the Roseboro funeral home. Ten days after Jan's death, Angela informed Michael that she was pregnant with his child. On the following day, Michael Roseboro was arrested and charged with the first-degree murder of his wife. His trial began on July 13, 2009. The District Attorney stated that Roseboro's obsession with Angela Funk was his motive for killing his wife. He was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. On-screen text graphic update: Michael Roseboro's motion for a new trial was denied. Last month, the Roseboro family sold the funeral home they had owned for more than a century. Abbott, reported that he had seen the young woman in her car, and also told investigators that he saw a white car driving near the crime scene. Police questioned Lawless' boyfriend, Leon Lamb, but could find nothing to tie him to the crime, and he passed a polygraph. Four months into the investigation, investigators got a break: 17-year-old Joshua Kezer had been held briefly in the county jail on assault charges, where, according to several inmates, he confessed to killing Lawless. Then Mark Abbott identified Kezer from a photo lineup as the driver of the white car he had seen near the crime scene. Police then charged Kezer with first-degree murder. During the trial, a young woman, Chantelle Crider, identified Kezer as having been at a party where he had words with Mischelle. However, no DNA, fingerprints or murder weapon linked Kezer to the scene. Nevertheless, Kezer was convicted and sentenced to 60 years in prison. The case haunted Rick Walter and in 2005, now sheriff, he re-opened the case. Soon the foundation on which Kezer's conviction was built began to crumble, as witnesses admitted to lying and evidence was questioned. Judge Richard Callahan agreed to review the case and was so disturbed by what he saw that instead of ordering a new trial, he declared Josh Kezer an innocent man. But someone killed Mischelle and high on the list of suspects is that local man, Mark Abbott, who was once a star witness for the prosecution. In fact, there are two Abbotts, Mark and his identical twin Matt. To this day, Walters is not sure which Abbott brother came in to report finding Mischelle, and two people in the office say that it was his brother Matt. Leon Lamb also remains a suspect. With the help of forensics experts at a "crime farm" in the Netherlands, who have examined DNA evidence, Walters hopes further investigation will allow him to bring the case to a grand jury. On screen text graphic update: Josh Kezer is suing former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. Interviewed: Sheriff Rick Walter; Joshua Kezer; Melissa Gaines, Mischelle's best friend; Mark Abbott; Jason Lawless, Mischelle's brother; Leon Lamb; Valerie Eubanks, Mischelle's sister; Esther Lawless, Mischelle's mother; Chantelle Crider; Brandon Caid, investigator; Dawn Pierce, host of the party; Jane Williams, church volunteer at the Missouri State Prison; Judge Richard Callahan; Ron Burton, friend of Mark Abbott; Richard and Selma Eikelenboom, Dutch forensics experts.

to Mexico. After their arrest, Hall was interrogated and charged with hindering the apprehension of Pitonyak. At his own trial, Pitonyak implied that Hall took part in the dismemberment of Jennifer Cave's body after her death. Put on trial for this crime, and for helping Pitonyak escape, she was found guilty and sentenced to five years in prison. However, after 17 months in jail, Laura Hall was released because a court ruled that her sentencing hearing wasn't fair. Her conviction was upheld and she is out on bond while prosecutors fight to put her back in jail. She could be sentenced to more time or released. And Pitonyak's new lawyer, says that they have new evidence and that Hall is also responsible for the murder. At Hall's new hearing, the judge rules against her: she's going back to jail. Her sentencing is set for May 2010, where she faces up to ten years in prison. Unless he wins a new trial, Pitonyak will be eligible for parole in 2033. Included interviews with Laura Hall; Sharon and Jim Sedwick, Jennifer Cave's mother and step-father; Loren and Carol Hall, parents of Laura Hall; Joe James Sawyer, Hall's attorney; Bill Bishop, prosecutor; Joe Turner, Pitonyak's attorney.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld" - A report on the June 28, 2007 disappearance of Paige Birgfeld, twice-divorced mother of three and a resident of Grand Junction, Colorado and the subsequent double-life uncovered by investigators following her disappearance. Following her 2006 divorce, Paige became the primary caregiver to her children and was described as such a devoted mother that the Mesa County Sheriff's Department was convinced she would never have left on her own accord. As friends and family searched for her; her car was found abandoned and on fire in an empty lot. Her first husband, Ron Beigler became the focus of the investigation, when it was learned that the two had been on a date the day of her disappearance, but Paige's friends and family were far more suspicious of the children's father, Rob Dixon, as she had a troubled history with him. After a thorough inquiry, both men had solid alibis. As the investigation continued, it was discovered that Paige was also known as Carrie, a high-priced escort. Her family suspected she had money issues. Investigators then began to believe Paige was murdered by one of her clients. Using her cell phone records, police began carefully looking at all of her clients and eventually honed in on one man, Lester Ralph Jones, an ex-con who had served time for kidnapping and assault. Authorities searched his home, but will not discuss what evidence they uncovered. Search dogs led investigators from Paige's car to an RV shop where Jones worked as a mechanic. Although authorities have zeroed in on Lester Ralph Jones, no charges have been filed and he denies any involvement. The lack of a body, coupled with Paige's secret life, have made it that much harder to prove anything beyond a reasonable doubt. Her friends and family continue their search. On screen text graphic update: Paige Birgfeld's parents sought custody of her children, but the courts ruled they would remain with their father, Rob Dixon. The investigation is continuing into the disappearance of Paige Birgfeld.

"The Case Against Nada Prouty" - a profile and interview with Nada Prouty, a former FBI and CIA terrorism fighter. Born in Lebanon, she came to the U.S. at age nineteen and arranged a sham marriage as a shortcut to citizenship. In 2005, FBI agents questioned her about her connections with her brother-in-law, a Lebanese restaurant owner named Talal Chahine, who was associated with Hezbollah, which was backed by Iran and on the U.S. terrorism list. She was accused of viewing classified information in the FBI ACS computer system without authorization. The CIA, however, did its own investigation and completely exonerated her of any wrongdoing. At the conclusion of her trial, Federal Judge Avern Cohn blasted the U.S. Attorney's Office for its overly zealous pursuit, but, because of the law regarding Prouty's sham marriage, he was forced to revoke her citizenship. She was fined nine hundred and seventy-five dollars, and released. The judge also blocked her deportation to Lebanon. Also interviewed is Bob Grenier, former CIA station chief in Pakistan. Motor Fleet Follow-up

Continuation of WRAL investigation into the motor fleet management in NC. Our investigation found agencies paying for miles even though some cars collected dust. For instance, the Department of Correction spent 1.7 million dollars last fiscal year for cars that were in park. The DOC has turned in three vehicles to help save money. During the last fiscal year, more than half of the Department of Health and Human Services' vehicles drove under the minimum mileage, costing more than a million dollars. Today, DHHS told us it hasn't turned in cars, instead employees are sharing more and managing the miles better. The net savings is almost $200,000 for the first six months of this fiscal year compared to our previous research.

Repeat DWI Suspect

WRAL investigates the record of a repeat DWI offender who still has his license. He's a case study in why NC laws can't keep drunk driving suspects with pending charges off the road.

2:30 01/27/2010 6PM

Gambling

WRAL Investigates the legal stalemate that's opening the door for more ways to bet. Lawmakers passed the lottery and banned video poker, except on the Cherokee reservation. We found the gaming industry quietly building its market share as law enforcement waits for legal guidance.

ABC Money Trail When the state studied how it sells liquor, the current system was called inefficient and outdated. In some cases ABC liquor stores are barely making a profit and a few even are losing money. As WRAL's Kelcey Carlson investigates, low performing stores are troubling because the mark-up on liquor is significant.

Parole vs Probation When inmates leave prison many are supervised for a period of time. If they get arrested again or don't follow their rules, a Parole Commission appointed by the Governor can send them back to prison. As WRAL's Kelcey Carlson shares in this report, statistics show hundreds of offenders get a pass.

Garner VFD Nearly four hundred thousand dollars from a local fire department is gone. The question for the State Bureau of Investigation is who took it and how'd they pull it off? Even without the answers, WRAL's Kelcey Carlson reports that the money flow to similar groups may come with more strings attached in the future.
Britthaven As the State Bureau of Investigation digs into a Chapel Hill nursing home, WRAL investigates the facility's parent company. The SBI stepped in after reports that residents were given drugs that weren't prescribed. Six patients went to the hospital and one died. WRAL's Cullen Browder takes a closer look at the company and shares more in this report.

935,000 of those vehicles (or 1 out of 9) weren't registered on time. Even with a fifteen day grace period, failure to register could cost drivers a twenty-five dollar fine. But a WRAL investigation found that fine is rarely collected, leaving the state to lose millions of dollars. In this report, the Wake County District Attorney argues there's a better way to handle the offenses.
